

Our mission is to proclaim the Gospel to all people so they may know and trust in Jesus as their Savior for eternal life, grow in knowledge and faith, and show this faith in their daily lives.

The Voice of Faith

A newsletter for the family and friends of Faith Lutheran Church & School

Bethlehem P.D. Drama

All of our Faith family is invited to attend the production of “Bethlehem, P.D.”, Tuesday, November 29, 6:30 pm, in the church.

The story is a light-hearted telling of the events that first Christmas. And, it’s told through the characters reminiscent of the old “dragnet” TV show. (I bet some of you families remember it).

It’s a short show – roughly 40 minutes tops.

The drama involves some of the adults from the church drama group, as well as a number of faith Lutheran students. Our FLS students involved include: Hazel Prince, Lera Ambray, Juliette Carillo, Nathan Holcomb, Mia Shoup, Abby Debraggio, Mckenzie Richard, Maxwell Mccalla, Jshaun Mccalla, and Blake Lowell.

Come join us!!! The show will be a great way to begin the Advent and Christmas seasons!!!

Gratefully,
Michael Neas

Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,
Don’t put up your Christmas decorations until you read this first!

Why? Well because there may be a way that starts a conversation with your friends and family that do not know the importance of who Christ is and why He is the reason for the season.

#1. Focus on St. Nicholas, rather than the mythical Santa Claus. This is an opportunity to teach people that Santa Claus was a real person who did what he did because of his faith in Christ. It is cool that St. Nick was adopted for all cultures across the board, but this speaks to the universal truth of the message of Christ rather than the mythology of Chris Cringle (Kris Kringle?).

#2. Make sure your Magi are not in the Creche, they technically do not arrive until Epiphany. This speaks to the universal need for Jesus in the world as your little figurine Magi travel from a far, so did these men who read in the stars that a great King was coming to rule the world, and in fact He did in the person of Christ our King! Keeping your decorations all the way

Stewardship News

Matthew 21:3 – “If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them at once.” Just a colt and her foal. How significant could they be? Could they really be used by the Lord for some great, heavenly purpose? This is one facet of stewardship we often forget. The blessing it is to us to be of service in the Lord’s Kingdom. What honor the Lord bestows upon us by using our gifts for His goals!

Be an Angel

Our Annual Angel Tree Campaign began on Saturday, November 12th, just in time for all those wonderful Thanksgiving sales! We have approximately 40 children to provide for this year. These are children from our community, church and school.

Pick an angel from the tree in the church narthex and sign the Angel Tree book next to the appropriate Angel Number. Each child has two angels; one for toys and one for clothing. After shopping for your child, wrap the gifts and mark them with the Angel Number.

Return the gifts to the church by Sunday, December 11th. Please help to make Christmas a delight for some precious boy or girl.

Pastor's Letter (cont'd)

to Epiphany (January 6th) helps remind people why the gifts are so important, they remind us of the first gifts given by these men to the undisputed ruler of the universe who we pay homage to, not on the schedule of Wal-Mart and Target, but on the church calendar for Christ. When they ask why your decorations are still up, say, "Because it's still Christmas", and tell them why!

#3. Make sure something you put outside let's everyone know, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord!"

If you have other plans to praise Jesus that are better than this, DO IT!!! I just wanted us all to think about, everything in alignment with, how important Jesus is to us in these difficult days when the world seems to have little interest in our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. After all, if we really believe that Jesus is the reason for the season, shouldn't the world know it too? Merry Christmas!

Music Notes for December

As this season of anticipation comes upon us, please know that our musical groups in the church are indeed preparing things. We hope that all who hear will take something away – perhaps to enjoy the season a bit more.

The Adult Choir, Faith Ringers, And Instruments will offer a good variety of music for our weekend worship opportunities. There's so much great music for this season, as well as for Christmas of course – it's difficult to narrow things down. But we do look forward to providing more stuff!! There will be a great amount of instrumental and choral music.

Also, we will change the psalm and gradual tones for the Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany seasons. A little something new for our liturgy.

We look forward to this great opportunity – the season of preparation. We hope you might find our musical offerings of enjoyment and meaning to you!!

Michael Neas
Director of Church Music

Christmas Greetings

It is a tradition at Faith Lutheran Church to encourage members to give special offerings to the Lord at Christmas in lieu of sending Christmas greetings to other members of the congregation. All who give such a gift will be listed in the December 26th announcements on a special Christmas greetings page.

Simply put your gift in an envelope and plainly mark it "CHRISTMAS GREETINGS" and put it in the offering plate or leave it at the church office. The deadline is Monday, December 20th. If you have any questions, please call the church office.

Gift Cards for Christmas

Please remember to purchase your gift cards, gas cards, grocery cards, etc. from the SCRIP program sponsored by our school. The cost of the gift card is the same to you—a $50 card costs you $50 and is worth $50—but the school earns a percentage of each card. You can place orders every Monday morning in the school office. As always, thank you for your support!

Women's Guild will meet on Tuesday, December 13th at Peach Valley Café for our Christmas gathering. Everyone is welcome! Please call me if you have not confirmed your attendance.

Christmas and New Year Blessings to all!

Louise Repass
352-483-3557

Retirement Center Christmas Parade

Calling all people who can drive! Join us for a new-age version of caroling as we light up our cars and drive thru the Lakeview Terrace Retirement center! Meet in the field outside the entrance on 19 at 5pm and have your car decorated by 6pm! We'll then take a slow little drive through the retirement community, sharing out lights and blasting some Christmas music! Contact DCE Mike Yurk for more information!

Stewardship News—November

Anxiety vs. Trust

Jesus, in His Sermon on the Mount, teaches those who follow Him that worrying about the necessities of life is idolatry: worshipping a false god. Worry and anxiety show what we care about. Our anxiety reveals what we love and what we're devoted to. It reveals what we trust in.

This is why our Lord begins this section with an overarching principle: “No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money” (Matt. 6:24).

But you say: “I must eat and drink. I must have clothing to wear and have a home in which to dwell.” Yes, all these things you need. And Jesus says that your Father in heaven will ensure that you have them. He demonstrates this with a simple argument: your Father in heaven feeds the birds of the air, who neither sow, nor reap, nor gather into barns. He clothes the lilies of the field, who neither toil nor spin but are arrayed more luxuriously than Solomon in all his glory. If, then, your Father in heaven feeds the birds, if He clothes the lilies, how will He not also feed and clothe you, when you are worth more than they are? (Matt 6:25–33).

Do you know that you are worth more than them? You are worth infinitely more. You are worth the price of the eternal Son of God. Did the Son of God come down from heaven and become a lily? Did he descend and take on the form of a bird? No! He came down from heaven and became a man: flesh of our flesh and bone of our bone (Gen. 2:23). He is one of us, our brother. And what did He do when He became flesh to dwell among us? He gave His holy, precious blood, through His innocent suffering and death, that you might be His own and live under Him in His kingdom forever.

God became man in Christ Jesus. He lived the life we failed to live, and He died the death we deserved. He was raised again on the third day overcoming sin and death ... for us. He was crucified for our transgressions and raised for our justification. So, if your Father in heaven has given His Son to die for us in order that we might live with Him eternally, how will He not also give us all things to support this body and life?

To be anxious about the necessities of life, to devote yourself to food and clothing, to care about these things and find security in them, is to serve another god. It is to deny that you will live forever because Jesus, the Son of God, is risen from the dead and lives and reigns for all eternity. It is to believe that the God who created you, redeemed you by the death and resurrection of His Son and sanctified you by His Spirit, will not keep His promise to sustain you in this life.

Jesus says, “Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness” (Matt. 6:33). God’s kingdom is His rule among us. His rule among us comes when our Father in heaven gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His Holy Word and lead godly lives here in time and there in eternity. This is what we ask God to do for us in the prayer that Jesus taught us.

Your Father in heaven knows what you need — food and clothing, house and home — and He promises to give it to you. Chief of the things you need is His grace and mercy in His Son, Jesus Christ. So, seek after that. And those who seek will find. And all the necessities of life, our Lord says, will be added to you.
