Stephen Ministry

Ever Thought about Becoming a Stephen Minister?

We will be training another class of Stephen Ministers this spring. Stephen Ministers work alongside our pastor to care, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support to people who are going through a difficult time, such as divorce, grief, hospitalization, unemployment, terminal illness, relocation, chronic illness, or loneliness. If you have gifts for caring, encouragement, and listening, please begin to prayerfully consider whether you might want to be part of this exciting ministry. If you think you might be interested, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders: Barbara Van Valkenburg [352.406.2580 or Neal Van Valkenburg 352.406.2497].

Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,
We are finally here, and the New Year 2023 promises to be yet another big one for Faith Lutheran Church and School. We will most likely be adding a new Kindergarten this year to take some of the pressure off our fabulous Kindergarten Teacher, Amanda Yurk. We will likely have a new 5th Grade home room teacher replacing the equally fabulous Deb Heilman. (Enjoy your retirement sis, you earned it, but don't forget no one retires from church!!!). We will also be ushering in new leadership for the next two years and looking at where we have been and what we need to do to get where we want to be as a church and school ministry in 2023 and beyond.

So, my personal theme for the year will be, drum roll please; "Serving with Glee in 2023". Anyone that knows me knows I am happiest when I am serving. Whether that's visits to the hospital and shut ins, whether that's teaching and preaching, or whether it's just taking a little time out of my schedule to let people know God cares when they are hurting

John 1:5 – “The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.” Through all of our hardships, all of our sorrows, all of our pains and loneliness, Jesus’ light shines in the darkness, and we are not overcome. In the face of our sin, in the midst of our pettiness, against all our pride, Jesus’ light shines and illuminates our hearts and changes us, day by day, into a greater reflection of His likeness.

To All Members and Friends of Faith Lutheran Church~

We didn't mail a Christmas greeting to you. We didn't forget you and our failure to send you a card by mail doesn't mean that we don't care about you. We do! But we also love our church and we know that you do, too.

So we took the money we would have spent for greetings and postage and donated it instead to Faith. It is in this spirit of the Good News, "Unto you is born a Savior!" that we wish you the most. Sometimes people just need someone there to listen to them. As we continue to evaluate our ministry and its relevance in 2023 remember serving never goes out of fashion. Christ gave that example on the night He was betrayed by washing the feet of all his disciples, even Judas who betrayed Him. Then He served us all, even unto death, to save us from our sins. Therefore, we call worship the Divine Service because it is Christ, who comes to serve us His body and blood for the forgiveness of all our sins, so we can go out joyfully ready to serve others so they may see Jesus as their Savior too. So Serve (With Me) with Glee in 2023.

"A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!"

Serving with Glee in 2023,

Pastor Kappel

Musical Thoughts for January

I want to offer sincere thanks to all our parish musicians and dramatists for their offerings during the Advent and Christmas seasons. They offered a lot of different things, and our hope is that all of it enhanced your enjoyment and appreciation of the seasons.

Now, epiphany is thought of as the “Season of Light”. Until Ash Wednesday, (February 22), the music offered in our weekend worship does incorporate images of light.

One special deal...our Children's Choir will participate in worship Sunday, January 22. They'll be singing about light; God always visible all around us, and even Shadrack.

I want to always remind our Faith family that there is always an open invitation for all to join us in our active groups. Besides the Adult choir and Faith Ringers, there are several dedicated instrumentalists who add to our worship – and the children's choir, are always open to church and school families. Always feel free to join us and actively participate!!

Michael Neas, Director of Church Music

Dear friend,

In the same hymn whose words appear on the other side, the author reflects on Jesus as an infant - 'little, weak, and helpless.' Even as adults we can experience these same emotions through sickness, loss of work, loss of loved ones...any myriad of the disappointments, letdowns, and challenges of life.

But, as the hymn continues, Jesus 'feels for all our sadness' because He, too, became a human. He, alone, is man and God and He, alone, took our sin upon himself to open the path to our Heavenly Father. His star rose two millennia ago, pointing the way to God with us, God for us.

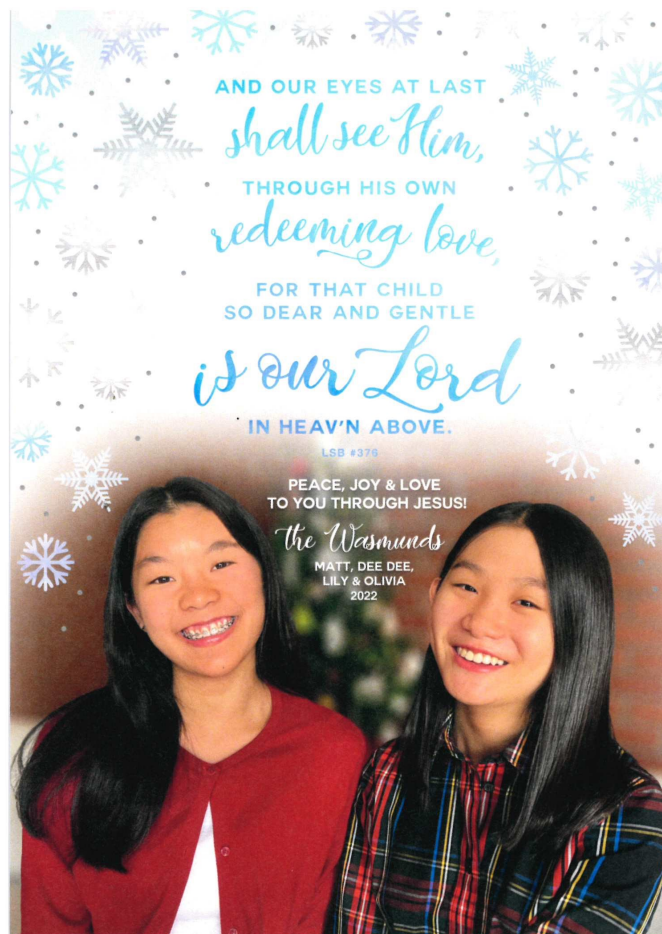

For almost two decades, we have experienced the grace of God through an incredible network of friends and family, churches and individuals. It will always be our prayer that we are faithful stewards of the opportunities given us to share the love of God through Christ, whose birth we celebrate once again.

Thank you for your love and support.

Peace, love and joy to you in Christ the newborn King.

Stewardship News—January

New Year's is a celebration of the past and the future. We take stock of the past with thanksgiving and sometimes even relief (that it's over), and we look to the future in hope and anticipation, and perhaps with some worry, for what it holds.

The point is that New Year's celebrations remind us of who we are as opposed to who we would like to be, what we have done in comparison to what we want to do. It reminds us of our accomplishments, but mostly it reminds us of our failures. What we've lost. Who we've lost.

New Year's is our own version of Charles Dickens' classic, A Christmas Carol. And we all play Scrooge. We are visited by the ghosts of our pasts, presents and futures.

St. Paul writes: "The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, 'He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.' He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for all your generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God" (2 Cor. 9:6–15).

St. Paul tells us that the Lord will both supply and increase what we need to give to the church for its work in the world. He tells us that this work God does in us will enrich and bless us in every way, and through this, will produce thanksgiving to God. With this in mind, here is some practical advice to help you take stock of your giving in years past and change what needs to be adjusted, improved, or done away with altogether.

First, attend the Divine Service to receive God's gifts of forgiveness, life and salvation. If you've not been faithful in attending worship to hear the preaching of God's Word, to receive forgiveness and feast on the rich food of our Lord's body and blood for the eternal benefit of your body and soul, then repent and come to receive the gifts God freely gives. God doesn't want your money. He wants you — all of you (Matt. 22:20–22).

Second, pray for the Lord's help. Your right as a Christian is to speak with your Father, the King of all creation, freely through His Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ. Go to the throne of grace and ask for strength and wisdom to follow His bidding faithfully (John 15:1–16).

Third, consider what the church is and what the church does. The church is a place of mercy. It inhales the mercy of the Father by the death, resurrection and ascension of His Son through the preaching of the Gospel and the Sacraments. It exhales this mercy in love toward neighbors. You are a member of the church, of God's family. Thus, you are not only a recipient of God's mercy, but a bearer of that mercy for the life of the world.

You spread that mercy through the generous giving of your income to support the work of the church in the world, as the Israelites did in the Old Testament (Lev. 27:1–34).

Fourth, take stock of your current giving in light of the New Testament's teaching on supporting the work of the church. Are you giving of your first fruits, taking it out of your paycheck first, or does God get what's left over? Are you giving voluntarily and cheerfully? Are you giving proportionally and generously? The Old Testament required a tithe, or ten percent. The New Testament gives freedom to be generous, to give more for the Church's work. Are you relying on God's promise to provide and increase what you need to do His work? If your answer is no to any of these, repent. If God gave you His only Son, will He not provide for you all things, even physical things? Trust Him, His Word, and heed it.

So, don't let your past define your future. Rather, commit for the year a generous proportion of your income, which is God's gift to you for this body and life.
