Stephen Ministers: The After People

People often ask, “What exactly is a Stephen Minister?” One way to put it is that Stephen Ministers are the After People.

Stephen Ministers are there: after the phone call you hoped you’d never get...after the funeral, when everyone has left and the emotions you’ve held at bay come crashing in on you... after the relationship falls apart and the bottom falls out of your life... after the doctor says, “I’m sorry, but there’s nothing more we can do... after the nursing home director shakes your hand and says, “Welcome to your new home.”... after the last child honks the horn, waves, and drives away—and the house suddenly seems empty... after the gavel comes down, the handcuffs go on, and your loved one is led away... after the baby arrives, demanding more of you than you ever dreamed possible... after you find a pink slip with your final paycheck... after your family and friends have heard your story one too many times, but you still need to talk it out.

Please contact Barbara Van Valkenburg 352.406.2580 or Neal Van Valkenburg 352.406.2497 for information on our Stephen Ministry Training Class starting April 15th!

Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,
In the late 80’s, my High School went from a three-grade school of Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors to adding Freshmen or 9th grade which moved up from the former Junior High Schools. They added 6th Grade to the Junior High Schools to make up for the loss of students and renamed it “Middle School”, which appears to be what almost everyone does today.

Well, as you can imagine, we had nearly a 25% increase in student population and probably more than that as the lower grades were always bigger. So, we were crammed in pretty good, to a school that previously had about 1500 students to well over 2000 that year. It was a tight squeeze, which became our yearbook theme that spring. I don’t remember it being all that bad, but by then I was a Junior and had my pick of the lockers, so maybe it was much worse for the two incoming grades that year.

Stewardship News

1 Corinthians 1:18 – “Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?” God’s ways are certainly not the world’s ways, including the way God tells us to manage the resources He’s given to us. The world says, “hold on, hold back and gather up.” Jesus says to store up treasure in heaven where moth and rust do not destroy and where no thief breaks in to steal. Whose way do you think is best? What is wiser: the wisdom of the financial gurus or the foolishness of God?

The hiatus between Christmas and Lent is a tight squeeze I am definitely feeling. Ash Wednesday, February 22, is as close to Christmas as I can remember in recent years. And we are cramming a lot into that tight squeeze. First of all, several baptisms – 4 in one weekend! PTL! Weddings, Weddings, Weddings! If you are wondering where I am, I am probably presiding over a wedding somewhere in Central Florida and beyond. Oh, and let us not forget the needs of the district and all our meetings we have to get in during the hiatus and during Lent as well.

In the midst of that, the pastors, myself, Marc Spaeth, and Don Moore, worked feverishly to prepare our Lent theme of “The Fruits of Repentance”. As of now, I have Ash Wednesday, my Two Lent sermons, and Maundy Thursday in the final edits stage, so I’m feeling pretty good about that. I just need to get those baptisms done, couples married, and then I think I can take but a brief breath to catch my wind before Lent begins. In the midst of all that, Marcy and I will run to Colorado to check on dad after his back surgery and give mom a bit of rest, too.

In a tight squeeze, it can be tempting to feel crushed instead of collected and regrouped. In times like these, it is important to look to God for relief and comfort. He alone can minister to you when you feel like your life might be too compressed for you to handle. Take a moment, maybe with a cup of tea or coffee, to relax with His word and see what He is saying to you today. It might just expand your spiritual universe and give you the new life you were looking for all along.

Serving Joyfully in 2023
Pastor Kappel

Music Thoughts

Epiphany is often thought of as the “season of light.” Until Ash Wednesday (February 22), the music offered in our weekend worship does incorporate images of light.

As we began our observance of National Lutheran Schools week, it was great to have our Children's Choir and Middle School Ringers participating in worship this past Sunday! Music for worship continues with Epiphany themes of “I Am a Child of God” and “Lord of All Hopefulness” – and even instrumental offerings of “The First Noel” and “See Amid the Winter's Snow.” This music is among that offered by our choir, handbells, and instruments for the upcoming weeks. Stars and light – coming out of darkness – seems to be a theme musically for this season of the church year.

I want to always remind our Faith family that there is always an open invitation for all to join us in our active groups. Besides the Parish Adult Choir and Faith Ringers, there are some dedicated instrumentalists who add to our worship. Our drama groups and children's' choir are always open to church and school families as well. Always feel free to join us and actively participate!

Stewardship News—February

Don't Replace "And" with "Or"

This alliterative trinity helps us see that giving is not just about money, but about our whole lives. As we confess in the Small Catechism's explanation of the First Article of the Apostle's Creed, God gives us everything we have and enjoy. First we confess that God gives us "our body and soul, our eyes, ears, and all our members, our reason and all our senses" (SC II). Then we confess that He gives us material things. The time, talents, and treasure trinity places before our eyes the fact that we are to give something of all three of these things toward the mission of the church in thanksgiving for what God has provided. For everything we have, and indeed, everything we are, comes from God's fatherly, divine goodness and mercy.

The problem with this alliterative trinity comes when we replace one little word with another little word — when we replace the word and with the word or. It is always written with the and, but when we read it, we read it with the or. Thus this quite helpful trinity, which extolls that everything that we have and are is a gift from God, to be given back in service of His church, turns into a trinity that we can pick and choose from when we serve God. The giving of our time, talents and treasure turns into the giving of our time, talents or treasure.

Then the question arises: Can we give of our time and talents instead of our treasure? Or perhaps it is the other way round: Can we give of our treasure and not of our time and talents? But these are the wrong questions. The right question is, can we give of our time and talents in addition to our treasure? Yes, indeed, we are called to give of all three. The things that God gives us are not to be pitted against one another. Rather, they are given to us, and we are to press them all into God's service for benefit of His church and our neighbors in need.

Thus, we give all three. We give our treasure in the form of a generous, first-fruits proportion of our income. We give of our time in generosity for the benefit of Christ's holy church. We give of our talents in the same manner. Since God gave us all these things, we are called to give generously of all these things in faith toward Him and in fervent love to our neighbors.

For God has provided all these things for us. Out of His fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, He gives us each time, talents AND treasure as a means to bless those around us. We serve our neighbors with these things, blessing them with the blessings with which God has blessed us. We give of our time, talents and treasure to our families, our society, our church and our local congregations. And we do this because we know that we are not our own. Rather, we belong to God. We have been bought with a price: the holy, precious blood and innocent suffering and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. He gave everything — His time, His talents and His treasure — to have us as His own and to live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence and blessedness. We have these things as gifts and blessings from God. Let us then press them all into service for the sake of His love — time, talents and treasure together.
