Letter from the Pastor

January, 2024

Dear Friends in Christ,

Happy New Year, I suppose you're expecting, but like my sermon said last week, our actual new year happened with the beginning of Advent. And no sooner have I gotten the word Advent across my lips than I am already getting ready for Lent! That's right LENT! It starts with Ash Wednesday on February 14th. So, while everyone else is donning red, we will be donning the dark ash of Lent. Seems depressing, but it is anticipatory very much like Advent was. So, take your break (I know I won't have time to) and get ready for yet another penitentially reflective season as it is almost upon us.

In the meantime, celebrate the Epiphany of our Lord! Celebrate the obvious truth that God was indeed in the world in the person and historical Christ! Celebrate His miraculous appearance. Celebrate the Magi who came to pay their respects to the King of the Universe. Celebrate His fulfilling the Law perfectly on our behalf and know that Jesus is Lord! Our devotion to His Word in worship will give these eyewitness accounts for you to contemplate and pray on. It will also give you pause to reflect on how that is central to your world view or maybe not as much as it should be. If it is not, the devotion and reflection of Lent can help you reckon your spiritual life and keep you focused on your Savior Jesus who came to die for your sins.

One of the ways I would like to challenge myself, and you with me; is how we are going to represent Ash Wednesday, February the 14th. Might we find that special black or grey outfit that can

Growing Faith Through Stewardship

Luke 21:1-4 – “Jesus looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the offering box, and he saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. And he said, ‘Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on.’

In this message Jesus compares the faith of the poor widow to that of the rich and sees her faith exceeding theirs as she gives all she has and trusts in the Lord to provide for her while they give only of their riches. Her gift, while small by comparison, exceeds all of theirs combined.

We at Faith all have the opportunity to do likewise and reap the benefits of growing faith by returning to the Lord a portion of the blessings He has provided us. We often hear Pastor state “You can’t outgive God”.

Gifts & Memorials

We appreciate these gifts and memorials. If we have neglected to acknowledge a gift or memorial that you have given, please contact the church office.

Your gifts and offerings are crucial for our congregation to fulfill God’s calling in our community. We thank all those who have continued to give. We have many ways for you to provide offering to your church during this time away from the campus. You can mail them to the church or make bill pay arrangements through your bank, but did you know that you can now make your tithes and offerings safely and securely online? Just go to bit.ly/FaithEustisGiving to provide your offerings or gifts today!

replace the bright red outfit? Instead of cherub lapel pins, can we dig deep into our curio cabinets and find a cross with a purple sash to pin on? Instead of going out to dinner with a sweetheart, and I know this is going to sound controversial for Valentine's Day, can we all be at the fellowship dinner with our dates and worship with them after? It will be challenging to subvert the culture of Wal-Mart and Hallmark. It might cause a dent in the attendance of the finest restaurant's clientele. It might even hurt your sweeties' feelings. There is nothing we can do about Wal-Mart, Hallmark, and the finest dining establishments in the Golden Triangle, but we still control ourselves and know who our God is. Consider it, act upon it, and I will see you at the foot of the Cross!

Social Ministry

Dear friends,

Jesus is the Prince of Peace, regardless of the struggles we see and experience in the world and in our own lives. This peace is everlasting and there in the manger lies the fulfillment of God's promises to rescue us and bring us to Him through faith by grace. Once again, we rejoice in the friendships, partnerships, and family that we have around the world. Reflecting on these last 12 months, we very briefly highlight below just a few events of interest or significance:

January - Our family gathered with other LCMS missionary families for a time of fellowship and worship together in Cambodia.

February - The two children of a family we invited to our church (ILC) were baptized and continue to participate in the life of the church.

March - Lily and Olivia organized an awareness campaign and fundraiser for the victims of the terrible earthquake in Turkey and Syria.

April - Three more children were washed in the waters of Baptism at ILC and the family's faithful presence is a testament to this special community.

May - We strengthened the bond with our local church partner (Lutheran Church in Korea) through an event scheduled at ILC.

June - Matt resumed travel in the region, visiting Taiwan and the vibrant ministries that take place in and through our partner school and churches.

July - Lily returned home after her first extended trip away, paving the way for the reality that awaits our family when she graduates.

August - Olivia and Lily traveled to the welfare home where their mentee, YeEun, lives, and spent a day playing, eating, and encouraging her.

September - Another individual was confirmed in the Christian Lutheran faith at ILC and the congregation celebrated through one of many fellowship events.

October - ILC Women's Retreat; Reformation activities; Lily submitted her first application for university

November - Matt presented at a missions conference designed to promote participation of young people in local and overseas ministry.

December - We open our home to people in our community over this season and take great joy sharing the news of the birth of Christ our Lord! (We also are so happy to send and receive
