Letter from the Pastor

February, 2024

Dear Friends in Christ,

“The days feel like years and the years feel like days!” “Time waits for no one!” “A time management class, you expect me to take a time management class? I don’t have time for a time management class!” All those phrases have been running through my head in anticipation of Lent which is almost here. And being that Ash Wednesday is on Valentine’s Day this year (When was the last time that actually happened? In 24 years in the ministry, I don’t remember it ever happening! Someone please tell me - asking for a friend.) the memes are rich, my favorite one being:

Now please don’t hold me to this for the imposition of your ashes, I just thought it was funny! But Lent is upon us, and I want you to be ready for our wonderful theme born out of Pastor Moore’s amazing musings: A Series of 3’s. #1. Three Days Blind, #2. Three Days Preparing, #3. Three Days Swallowed,

STEWARDSHIP

Our Stewardship Theme for 2024.

“GROWING THE FUTURE” IN Faith, AT Faith.

Based on the Bible Verse:

Proverbs 3 vs 9

Honor the LORD with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your crops.

Watch for more to come as we Launch this Theme in February.

GROWING IN FAITH THROUGH STEWARDSHIP

Genesis 4:4 – “And Abel brought the best, the choicest parts of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions. And the Lord had regard for Abel and his offering.”

This passage has always been a bit of a mystery. Why did God regard Abel’s offering favorably and not Cain’s to the point that Cain was so enraged he killed Able.

One conclusion is that Able gave of his first fruits where Cain did not which would imply that Able gave cheerfully and Cain reluctantly.

For today’s Christians we can give of our first fruits by having our offering to the church be the first line item in our budget and by not leaving it until all other expenditures have been budgeted and offer only what is left over; a practice of all too many households in today’s materialistic society. By making our offering our first fruits Faith families will also have their donations regarded favorable by the Lord who loves a cheerful giver.

Your gifts and offerings are crucial for our congregation to fulfill God’s calling in our community. We thank all those who have continued to give. We have many ways for you to provide offering to your church during this time away from the campus. You can mail them to the church or make bill pay arrangements through your bank, but did you know that you can now make your tithes and offerings safely and securely online? Just go to bit.ly/FaithEustisGiving to provide your offerings or gifts today!

Gifts & Memorials

We appreciate these gifts and memorials. If we have neglected to acknowledge a gift or memorial that you have given, please contact the church office.

#4. Three Days Torn, #5. Three Days on the Road. #6. Ash Wednesday/Valentine's Day will introduce our theme, and then I will be here 4 of the 6 Wednesdays to deliver them in full. As resources come out to help you with your Lent devotions, I will make them available to help us reflect penitentially in this season of Lent. But that's enough of that, moving on...

The biggest and most gratifying news for me is that Stephen Peeler came and indicated he is interested in going to seminary to become a parish pastor. He is a true son of the congregation and I have high hopes we will get him back in central Florida as a 3rd generation Floridian. Stephen can also serve as a poster boy for our campaign to raise funds for all who want to attend seminary to help with the high cost of the excellent training that is offered at both seminaries. After Lent, I will train him to assist with liturgy to start getting his feet wet. This is great news that after months and years of encouraging our sons and daughters of the congregation, we are finally seeing the first pastoral candidate that was formed here from the very beginning with our school ministry, continued with our high school ministry (way to go Mike!) and most recently with our young adult ministry (way to go Pastor Moore).

We have also received another substantial pledge to our Seminary Student Fund which will be enough to fund the rest of Joshua Wareham's seminary education and cover the entirety of Stephen's education as well. If you would like to contribute to that fund, above and beyond your tithe to the unit budget of the church, please designate your offering to the Seminary Student Fund. It is my goal that we keep this funded so we can get at least two seminarians to the seminary every 5-6 years to help alleviate the attrition of pastors.

With these capable young men going to seminary, we should look forward to pastors filling vacancies and faithfully serving in Word and Sacrament for years to come!

Council Corner

Some have asked the question, “What does the church council do?” “Who are members of the council?”

The council members are the church officers: the elected Church President (Ben Pauluhn), and the appointed Secretary (Lois Ford) and Treasurer (Cindy Thomas) and the elected directors of each administrative board: Elders (Neal Van Valkenburg), Education (Karen Conrad), Evangelism (Cindy Thomas), Social Ministry (Wanda Clary), and Trustees (Louise Repass).

They meet every month.

Each member of the Council has different tasks to make sure the members of Faith Lutheran Church can use their God given talents to worship and serve the Lord and follow the purpose of Faith as stated in the constitution:

“The purpose of this congregation shall be to train and equip God’s people to serve their Lord; -to provide pastoral care for its members; -to teach the Word of God and administer the Sacraments; -to preserve the purity of doctrine; -and to exercise Christian love and fellowship.”

Currently, Council is working on initiatives related to stewarding God-given resources in areas such as: student scholarship funds, seminarian training support, facilities support for school growth, facilities support for church building health.

Check out the Council Corner each month to see a summary of what we are working on. LF

MUSIC THOUGHTS FOR FEBRUARY, 2024

EPIPHANY IS OFTEN THOUGHT OF AS THE “SEASON OF LIGHT”. UNTIL ASH WEDNESDAY (MARCH 14), THE MUSIC OFFERED IN OUR WEEKEND WORSHIP DOES INCORPORATE IMAGES OF LIGHT.

BEGINNING ACTUALLY WITH THE CHOIR’S ANTHEM THIS PAST SUNDAY, JANUARY 21 “Arise, Shine, Your Light Has Come”, EMPHASIS CONTINUES WITH CHOIR AND HANDBELLS OFFERING “The Lord Is My Light and My Salvation” (Psalm 27) in February. INSTRUMENTALISTS WILL OFFER “Star of the East”, and “Beautiful Saviour”. “BRIGHTEST AND BEST ARE THE STARS OF THE MORNING”; “I WANT TO WALK AS A CHILD OF THE LIGHT” are highlighted. Concluding on Transfiguration Sunday is the well-known text “How good Lord, To Be Here” – offered by choir and violin. - THIS MUSIC IS AMONG THAT OFFERED BY OUR CHOIR, HANDBELLS, AND INSTRUMENTS FOR THE UPCOMING WEEKS. STARS AND LIGHT – COMING OUT OF DARKNESS – IS INDEED A THEME MUSICALLY FOR THIS SEASON OF THE CHURCH YEAR.

I WANT TO ALWAYS REMIND OUR FAITH FAMILY THAT THERE IS ALWAYS AN OPEN INVITATION FOR ALL TO JOIN US IN OUR ACTIVE GROUPS. BESIDES THE PARISH ADULT CHOIR AND FAITH RINGERS, THERE ARE SOME DEDICATED INSTRUMENTALISTS WHO ADD TO OUR WORSHIP, AND OUR DRAMA GROUPS AND CHILDRENS’ CHOIR ARE ALWAYS OPEN TO CHURCH AND SCHOOL FAMI-
